HOW MTH WILL TAKE YOUR BUSINESS TO THE NEXT LEVEL

FOUNDATION BUILDING

- You'll conquer the fears that hold you back from making the good decisions that focus on what's most important to you and your business.
- You'll identify distractions and start saying "no" to them.
- You'll discover your strengths and the things that fire you up so that you are better-equipped to do your job well and with passion.
- You'll untangle your story and discover what makes your business one-of-a-kind.
- You'll learn the steps to creating a vision for life and business that complement and support each other.

ACTION-DRIVEN

- You'll learn how to funnel your unique story into a purposeful business mission that will attract loyal customers and drive more profits.
- You'll break down big goals into actionable steps, becoming more purposeful and efficient with your time.
- You'll find power in financial freedom by learning the best practices for keeping costs down and income up.
- You'll find inspiration in our speakers about taking bold leaps in business so that your vision can be brought to life.

MORE HEART

Making Things Happen is about building a business that runs off the fuel of what fires you up, and that serves your life by cultivating more purpose, more intentional time, and better relationships.

You'll leave MTH with the tools to merge your story and your business to create more loyal customers, a community of encouragers and accountability partners to support you, and the power of knowing your unique purpose.
